Two Join Kentucky Nonprofit Network Board of Directors

LEXINGTON, KY – Kentucky Nonprofit Network (KNN), the state association of nonprofit organizations, recently elected two new members to its board of directors: Brian Roy, Deputy Executive Director for the Kentucky Association of Counties and Hollie Spade, Regional Director of External and Legislative Affairs with AT&T. Roy and Spade join the seven-member Board of Directors for 2015.

Brian Roy serves as the Deputy Executive Director for the Kentucky Association of Counties and previously served for over twenty three years in law enforcement as both a deputy sheriff and Sheriff in Marshall County, and also served as United States Marshal for the Western District of Kentucky during 1998-1999.

He is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy's 161st Session, the National Sheriff's Institute, and holds both a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and Master of Arts degree in Organizational Communications from Murray State University. He is a resident of Benton, Kentucky,

Hollie Spade started her career as an attorney, working in-house with American General Finance in Evansville, KY and then joined the firm of Hazelrigg and Cox in Frankfort, KY. After 10 years in private practice, Hollie moved on to spend 13 years in public service. She started as General Counsel and Legislative Liaison at the Cabinet for Economic Development and eventually served as Chief of Staff there. In February of this year, Hollie accepted a position as Regional Director of External and Legislative Affairs with AT&T.

Hollie previously served on the Board of the Sunshine Center in Frankfort, KY and as a parent representative on the Frankfort Resource and Youth Services Center. In addition to her service on the KNN board of directors, she was also recently elected to the board of the Bluegrass Chapter of the American Red Cross. She is a resident of Frankfort, KY.

The full slate of 2015 board members are as follows: Stu Silberman, Chair (recently retired Executive Director, Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence), Marian Guinn, Vice-Chair (CEO, God's Pantry Food Bank), Steve Jennings, CPA, Treasurer (Partner, Crowe Horwath), Eileen O'Brien, Secretary (Partner, Stoll Keenon Ogden), Russell Harper, Public Policy Committee Chair (Senior Vice President of Government Relations, Aetna), Brian Roy (Deputy Executive Director, Kentucky Association of Counties), Hollie Spade (Regional Director of External and Legislative Affairs, AT&T) and Danielle Clore, ex officio (Executive Director/CEO, Kentucky Nonprofit Network).
