Tandy Elected to State Association Board

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Kentucky Nonprofit Network (KNN), the state association of nonprofit organizations, has elected Florence Tandy, Crittenden to its board of directors.

Tandy is the Executive Director of Northern Kentucky Community Action Commission, an eight county human services organization with an annual budget of $13 million in federal, state, local, and private funding. Under her leadership, the organization has grown in size, complexity, and accomplishment. It is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and is a Best Practice Partner with the Kentucky Nonprofit Network. More recently, the organization received KNN's 2017 Innovative Nonprofit award, and is a finalist in the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce's Business Impact award. She will retire from her service at NKCAC at the end of May 2018.

Tandy brings more than 30 years of experience in nonprofit leadership roles, including human services, health care, and technical assistance organizations to the KNN board. She holds a Bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky, and a Master's degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University. In 2017 she completed Women on Boards: Succeeding as a Corporate Director Certificate at Harvard Business School. Florence is a 1995 graduate of Leadership Madison County, a 2007 graduate of Leadership Northern Kentucky, and a 2013 recipient of the Distinguished Nonprofit Leader award from the Kentucky Nonprofit Network. In 2018 she received the prestigious Outstanding Women of Northern Kentucky award. She is active in regional and statewide organizations, including Covington Rotary, Community Action Kentucky (board of directors), and the Northern Kentucky Workforce Investment Board (board member).

Tandy joins other KNN members Chris Chaffin, Lexington; Michael Delzotti, Lexington; Alan Engel, Louisville; Lori Flanery, Louisville; Marian Guinn, Lexington; Russell Harper, Louisville; Steve Jennings, Lexington; Eileen O'Brien, Lexington; and Sarah Razo, Lexington in governing the association's mission to strengthen and advance Kentucky's nonprofit community. KNN serves as a resource for nonprofit leaders, board members and other volunteers, an information center on effective nonprofit management practices, and an advocate for the nonprofit sector.
